PRIVACY POLICY

1 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 This Privacy Policy is to provide information to you on how your personal information (which includes your sensitive information, including your health information) is collected and used within our practice, Wynyard Medical Centre (WMS TAS PTY LTD ACN 139 624 801), and the circumstances in which we may share it with third parties.

2 WHY AND HOW YOUR CONSENT IS NECESSARY

- 2.1 When you register as a patient of a practitioner who consults from our practice, you provide consent for us (including our employees, agents, contractors and other representatives) to access and use your personal information so the independent practitioners consulting from our practice can provide you with the best possible healthcare. Only persons who need to see your personal information will have access to it. If we need to use your information for any other purposes, we will seek additional consent from you to do so.

3 WHY DO WE COLLECT, USE, HOLD AND SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 3.1 Our practice will need to collect your personal information to facilitate the provision of healthcare services to you by the independent practitioners consulting from our practice. Our main purpose for collecting, using, holding and sharing your personal information is to facilitate the management of your health by those independent practitioners. We also use it for directly related business activities, such as financial claims and payments, practice audits and accreditation, and business processes (e.g. staff training).

4 WHAT PERSONAL INFORMATION DO WE COLLECT

- 4.1 The information we will collect about you includes your:
- (a) names, date of birth, addresses, contact details including emergency contact and next of kin;
  - (b) demographic information, including gender, cultural background, and religious beliefs;
  - (c) medical information including medical history, medications, allergies, adverse events, immunisations, social history, family history and risk factors.
  - (d) Medicare number (where available) for identification and claiming purposes;
  - (e) healthcare identifiers;
  - (f) concession card details; and
  - (g) health fund details.

5 DEALING WITH US ANONYMOUSLY

- 5.1 You have the right to deal with us anonymously or under a pseudonym unless it is impracticable for us to do so or unless we are required or authorised by law to only deal with identified individuals.
- 5.2 Please be aware that Medicare rebates are only available where a Medicare card (and/or associated information) is available. As such your practitioner may require you to pay for your consults in full without this rebate if you choose to deal with us anonymously or under a pseudonym.

6 HOW DO WE COLLECT YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

- 6.1 Our practice may collect your personal information in several different ways:

- (a) You may provide us with your personal information directly (for example, when you make an appointment with a practitioner consulting from our practice, our practice staff will collect your personal and demographic information via your registration).
- (b) The independent practitioners providing medical services may also collect further personal information from you which may be disclosed to us. Information can also be collected through My Health Record, e.g. via Shared Health Summary, Event Summary or through a Discharge Summary provided by a hospital or other healthcare service providers.
- (c) We may also collect your personal information when you contact us via our website, send us an email or SMS, telephone us, make an online appointment or communicate with us using social media.
- (d) In some circumstances personal information may also be collected from other sources. Often this is because it is not practical or reasonable to collect it from you directly. This may include information from:
  - i Your guardian or responsible person.
  - ii Other involved healthcare providers, such as specialists, allied health professionals, hospitals, community health services, and pathology and diagnostic imaging services.
  - iii Your health fund, Medicare, or the Department of Veterans' Affairs (if relevant).
  - iv While providing medical services, further personal information may be collected via:
    - v electronic prescribing
    - vi My Health Record
    - vii online appointments.

Various types of images may be collected and used, including:

- CCTV footage: live feed only
- Photos and medical images: These can be taken using personal devices for medical purposes, following the guidelines outlined in guide on using personal devices for medical images. (The RACGP resource Using personal mobile devices for clinical photos provides further information on the considerations required when taking clinical photos on a personal mobile device that belongs to a clinician and is used outside of the workplace.)

We will always comply with privacy obligations when collecting personal information from third-party sources. This includes ensuring transparency with patients, obtaining necessary consents, maintaining data accuracy, securing the information, and using it only for specified purposes.

6.2 If your practitioner deems it in your best interest to discuss your clinical information with you, we will arrange for this to occur either in person, via telephone or via videoconference.

7 WHEN, WHY AND WITH WHOM DO WE USE AND SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

7.1 We collect, use and disclose your personal information to facilitate the provision of medical services to patients of the independent practitioners consulting from our practice.

7.2 We may also share your personal information:

- (a) with other healthcare providers;
- (b) when it is required or authorised by law (e.g. court subpoenas, or where we are obliged to make a mandatory notification to a regulatory body);
- (c) when it is necessary to lessen or prevent a serious threat to a patient's life, health or safety or public health or safety, or where it is otherwise impractical to obtain your consent;
- (d) to assist in locating a missing person;
- (e) to establish, exercise or defend a claim;
- (f) for the purposes of confidential dispute resolution processes;

- (g) during the course of providing nursing support services;
- (h) for the purposes of uploading that information to your My Health Record, such as through the shared health summary or event summary; and/or through electronic prescribing
- (i) with third parties who work with our practice for business purposes, such as accreditation agencies or information technology providers – these third parties are required to comply with the Australian Privacy Principles (APPs) and this policy.

7.3 Only people who need to access your information will be able to do so. Other than in the course of facilitating the provision of medical services or as otherwise described in this policy, our practice will not share personal information with any third party without your consent.

7.4 We will not share your personal information with anyone outside Australia (unless under exceptional circumstances that are permitted by law) without your consent.

7.5 Our practice will not use your personal information for marketing any of our goods or services directly to you without your express consent. If you do consent, you may opt out of direct marketing at any time by notifying our practice in writing.
